OAKWOOD COUNTRY CLUB

The Folly Theater, known as the Grand Lady of 12th Street, is one of Kansas City's historic gems. Dubbed the "Carnegie Hall of Kansas City" by renowned flutist Sir James Galway, this icon echoes in her past of boxing, burlesque, and vaudeville, to the spectacular artistry of Gregory Hines, Jon Batiste, Esperanza Spalding, Lily Tomlin, Rhiannon Giddens, and most recently to the harmonious sounds of Samara Joy, Oleta Adams, and Dolly Parton.

The Folly continues to be "the place" for all Kansas Citians to gather. From our Americana, Jazz, LIVE! in the Lounge, and Kids' series to partnerships with Kansas City Friends of Alvin Ailey, Kansas City Jazz Orchestra, Heartland Men's Chorus, Friends of Chamber Music, Harriman-Jewell Series, and other collaborations including Kansas City's famed Late Night Theater, the Folly is the most unique and diverse venue in Kansas City.

An architectural landmark, the Folly was saved from the notorious wrecking ball in 1974, renovated, and reopened in 1981 to all. However, a beautiful building like this always needs a little lift here and there. Golfing in this year's Folly Classic will help keep the Folly Kansas City's shining star and secure her future on the arts' landscape of KC. Sign up today to enhance lives through the power of the arts at the Folly!

And like the Folly, what's old is new again as we return to the beautifully restored Oakwood Country Club for this year's classic. Sign up before it's too late!

The Folly Theater is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit charitable organization.

All sponsorships include donor recognition in the Folly Jazz program, the Folly website, and Folly social media.
